

Where the Raven Flies

Mono Inc.

They bring the rope
They bring the water
They bring the whip
The bucket and the rack
They bring the fork
The judas cradle
They bring the pole
The saw and then the rats

All in their search for answers
Cruel inventions wait for you
And the certainty of truth
All in their search for answers
Despite you have no idea
Tell them what they want to head

In your dreams
You can disappear
In your dreams
Fly to somewhere far away from here
No sorrow
You can leave it all behind
In your dreams
You can get away
In your dreams
Go the where your kindred souls will wait
No torture
Fly to where the raven flies

They bring the bull
They bring the horses
They bring the crows
The burro and the ring
They bring the frame
They bring the poker
They bring the Catherine wheel
the pyres and the stake

All in their search for answers
Cruel inventions wait for you
And the certainty of truth
All in their search for answers
Despite you have no idea
Tell them what they want to head

In your dreams
You can disappear
In your dreams
Fly to somewhere far away from here
No sorrow
You can leave it all behind
In your dreams
You can get away
In your dreams
Go the where your kindred souls will wait
No torture
Fly to where the raven flies

Fly away, raven, fly
Fly away, raven, fly

So don't mess with the men on a mission
Don't stick to the ultimate truth
Don't mess with the men on a mission
Spin a yarn, there will be no ruth

In your dreams
You can disappear
In your dreams
Fly to somewhere far away from here
No sorrow
You can leave it all behind
In your dreams
You can get away
In your dreams
Go the where your kindred souls will wait
No torture
Fly to where the raven flies
