

Don't Hold Back

Monolink

I, sink like a stone
To the bottom of nowhere
Where no one can go
And I, float on a breeze
The sky underneath my feet
I am going home

(Keep holding back
You keep holding back)
You keep holding back
You keep holding back
You keep holding back
You keep holding back
You keep holding back
Don't hold back

Keep holding back
You keep holding back
You keep holding back
You keep holding back
You keep holding back
Don't hold back

Keep holding back
You keep holding back
You keep holding back
You keep holding back
You keep holding back
(You keep holding back
You keep) don't hold back

I, float on a breeze
The sky underneath my feet
I am going home

Keep holding back
You keep holding back
You keep holding back
You keep holding back
You keep holding back
Don't hold back
