

Under Dark

Monolink

We're calling you awake
From the sleep you've been sleeping for years
Been await for the day
Been await like wolves in a field
And when the essence of life is coming down from above
To lay down where you lie
Time will lose its weight on you
Under dark, dark, dark, darkening skies

We're under darkening skies
We're under darkening skies
We're under darkening skies
We're under darkening skies
We're under darkening skies
We're under darkening skies
We're under darkening skies
We're under dark

We're under darkening skies
We're under darkening skies
