

The Last Leaf

Monolord

With my eyes pressed to the broken glass
My hands are reaching out to stars as we pass
Ignorance brought this upon us fast
Time to atone this madness, no time to rest

Blackened skies around us all
Take us back before the fall
Before the fall

Passing faces - dead inside
Don't you go wandering with that bright view of life
I've seen some things I'd like unseen
I'm ruled by none but you're forever my queen

Blackened skies around us all
It's a dream - must carry on
I see no angels dressed in white
I'll cry for everyone that died
And shined so bright