

Better

MONSTA X

You stay on the Westside, don't get how you're all mine
From the 213, Westcoast royalty
I smiled on the outside
You fell from my lifestyle
What a tragedy

I know I'm out of my mind
I'm stuck in my head
And you're out of my league
And I'll never forget
But we both know why
It ain't different this time, just know
I never ever meant to drag you down
You're the only reason I'm here now

It's hard to change, I'm trying, babe
It hurts 'cause
I know I will never get any better
Don't make me beg
Don't walk away
I need you, 'cause I know I will never get any better
I need you, ooh, ooh

I can never say no
Unless you say so
There's a part of me, I wish you didn't see
But I love your patience
I ain't gotta waste it
When I fucked up, wasted

I know I'm out of my mind
I'm stuck in my head
And you're out of my league
And I'll never forget
But we both know why
It ain't different this time, just know
I never ever meant to drag you down
You're the only reason I'm here now

It's hard to change, I'm trying, babe
It hurts 'cause
I know I will never get any better
Don't make me beg
Don't walk away
I need you, 'cause I know I will never get any better
I need you, ooh, ooh
