In one moment, your starlight shakes me up
In just a moment, my sweet heart
Fell on top of your heart

As if I'm being pulled, I'm changing
Feels familiar but different as well
You're the strength that wakes me up from being down

I need to know all the reasons
All of the world that goes toward you
Your charm that pulls me, without being able to resist

A star that is more like a star than a star
It'll be filled with sweetness
On your twinkling star
I will always stay
I found out what is pulling me
It's your charm, you're the reason
You're more like a star than an actual star
It's because of your twinkling eyes

I think it's because of you
When I see the starlight
I feel good like it's morning time
Feeling good like that
An unforgettable feeling refreshes me
Fill me up with you again, pop it up refresh

You're like gravity
Everyone gets pulled into you
Your sweet charms makes it impossible to resist

No matter how many times I look, you're always so new Inside my days that were always the same
You're the only door that I can escape through

Even the ocean sends waves towards you
I can't fall asleep at the thought of you
Even my dreams are all filled with you

A star that is more like a star than a star
It'll be filled with sweetness
On your twinkling star

I will always stay
I found out what is pulling me
It's your charm, you're the reason
You're more like a star than an actual star
It's because of your twinkling eyes

There are so many stars in the sky
But you're the only star on earth
Please cherish my heart
That has fallen on you like a meteorite

More fruity than fruit
Beautiful and pretty
You look so classy
You already shine
You're my first
This feeling is the best
All other styles are not great
Besides you, bye, I'll say goodbye

A star that is more like a star than a star
It'll be filled with sweetness
On your twinkling star
I will always stay
I found out what is pulling me
It's your charm, you're the reason
You're more like a star than an actual star
It's because of your twinkling eyes
