

SHE'S THE ONE

MONSTA X

She's the one, who got me all messed up
I could write a million songs but I know it's not enough

She's so beautiful, and I know she knows it
She know how to think, yeah she always owns it
But I just haven't told her yet, no I just haven't told her
Imma buy a rose, a dozen roses
Fly her on a one day trip to paris
But I just haven't told her yet, no I just haven't told her

She makes, my knees feel weak
She makes my drink feel stronger
Can't eat, can't sleep can't dream, can't wait any longer
Any longer now

She's the one, who got me all messed up
I could write a million songs but I know it's not enough
Cause she's the one, I get feelings for
I could write a million songs but I know it's not enough
Cause she probably doesn't even know this songs about her

Think about her face every time I wake up
And I wanna to ask how her day was
But I just haven't told her yet, no I just haven't told her
Not the type guy who gonna making a promise
Rolling down my sleeve, you'll see my heart on it
She could cut my words, when usually got it, she wants it

She makes, my knees feel weak
She makes my drink feel stronger
Can't eat, can't sleep can't dream, can't wait any longer
Any longer now

She's the one, who got me all messed up
I could write a million songs but I know it's not enough
Cause she's the one, I get feelings for
I could write a million songs but I know it's not enough
Cause she probably doesn't even know this songs about her

She makes, my knees, feel weak
She makes my drink feel stronger
Can't eat, can't sleep can't dream, can't wait any longer

She's the one, she's the one, who got me all messed up
I could write a million songs (she's the one) but I know it's not eno ugh (she's the one)
Cause she's the one, I get feelings for
I could write a million songs but I know it's not enough
Cause she probably doesn't even know this songs about her
