

The Dreaming

MONSTA X

Go on and get it, give it all you got
You'll never get over the view from the top
Just reach the finish, just ring the bell
You'll have trophies to show and stories to tell, yeah

It's hard not to believe it
But don't you get the feeling

If finding the gold is losing the rainbow
The colors are there, they're not the same though
Maybe you know the moment you have it
But getting to hold it lets go of the magic
If touching the sky is why we're all reaching
Are we missing the point and missing the meaning?
Is it the knowing? (Ah-ah, yeah)
Is it the seeing? (Ah-ah, yeah)
Or is it the dreaming?
Is it the dreaming?

Remember that moment turn on like a light
You had nothing on paper, it was all in your mind
You saw it all perfect, it gave you a rush
And now I bet you right now, it probably still does

So if you're halfway through it
Would you even want to do it?

If finding the gold is losing the rainbow
The colors are there, they're not the same though
Maybe you know the moment you have it
But getting to hold it lets go of the magic
If touching the sky is why we're all reaching
Are we missing the point and missing the meaning?
Is it the knowing? (Ah-ah, yeah)
Is it the seeing? (Ah-ah, yeah)
Or is it the dreaming?
Is it the dreaming?

If you're still smiling
With one mile to go
If you've got the answer
Let us all know

Is finding the gold worth losing the rainbow?
The colors are there, are they the same though?
Maybe you know the moment you have it
But getting to hold it lets go of the magic
If touching the sky is why we're all reaching
Are we missing the point and missing the meaning?
Is it the knowing? (Ah-ah, yeah)
Is it the seeing? (Ah-ah, yeah)
Or is it the dreaming?
Is it the dreaming?

Ah-ooh-ooh, ah-ooh-ooh-ooh
