I'm falling for you

Still falling for you

I'm falling for you

Still falling for you

I'm falling for you

At the moment I told the end I still

I'm still standing there

The reason I lived was to cover all my breath

The chin rises to the end

Stay here Stay here

What you can not reach

Stay here Stay here

Disappear like a flood

Arei there Arei There

The day I wait for you

You're my one

You're my world save me

Take me out

I'm under water

All alone is dark and cold

Save me

Still under water

Extend your hand and give me the breath

Will not you help me out

Help me out

Will not you

Help me out

I can not breathe

I can not breathe anymore

I can not live

I can not take it anymore

Tell me how to forget you

And baby tell me

How to stop loving you

Do you still love me too

Or am I asking you

Just like a fool

I'm tryna be good

I thought I'll be great

I thought everything was okay

It was not all

Stay here

Please stay for a while

I can breathe again

Stay here Stay here

Until you come back

Stay here Stay here

I'm trying hard

Arei there Arei There

The light disappears

You're my one
You're my world save me

Take me out
I'm under water
Save me
Still under water
Extend your hand and give me the breath

I'm falling for you
Still falling for you
I'm falling for you
Still falling for you

Waves float over the water
After a while
Unflappable
The cool body moves
The light is wrapped around me
Stretch out greatly
Blurring is slow
It's like a slow heart
Water is disturbing
I'll change it
The two eyes that are released shake
I want to grab a transparent look
Your face

Even if it's eternity over time
I can never erase you
If you are back at the end of the waiting
If you save me
Help me out

Take me out
I'm under water
All alone is dark and cold
Save me
Still under water
Extend your hand and give me the breath
I'm falling for you
Still falling for you
I'm falling for you
Still falling for you

I'm falling for you
