

You're a long way from home
And you can't sleep at night
Grab your telephone
Now something ain't right
And that's evil
Evil
Going home, baby
I said, I'm warning you, brothers
You'd better watch your happy home

Long way from home
And you can't sleep at night
Feels like another mule's kickin' in my stall
And that's evil
Evil
Going out, baby
I said, I'm warning you, brothers
You'd better watch your happy home
Watch your happy...
Watch your happy, happy home

You're a long way from home
And you can't sleep at night
Feels like another mule's kickin' in my stall
And that's evil
Evil
Going home, baby
I said, I'm warning you, brothers
You'd better watch your happy home
Watch your happy...
Watch your happy, happy home

Evil, yeah
Evil, right
Evil, yeah
Evil, now
