

Solar Vacuum

Monstrosity

Captive heat
Emanating spectrum
Beams of radiant sweeping fires
A captured spark of dark existence

Engulfing flames of power fueling
Violent vacant translucent fumes
Intake of full heated strains
Coated rays of searing toxins

Blackened fumes permeate the glimmer
A shining rage of untempered steel
Forced into your dying
In a vacuum of charred hellish fate

Frozen in the moment caustic flash
Of angled points of light
Torched amongst an arid sky
At the spire of desperation

Emptiness confined within
This hollowed isolating flare
A helpless pointed trajectory
Is burning in the glare

Solar
Inhalation overload
Vacuum

Brazen course of ignition captured
Blazing fires creating force
Coated with a noxious blanket
Glow of impure carbon smoke

Rattled by perplexing fortune
Staggered fate and certain death
Cruel forces cast their strike
Unyielding benchmark of distress

Frantic reeling to circumvent
The cascading walls of wrathful pain
Stinging scalding finite matter
The essence of dark tragedy

Failing measures molten triggers
Unexpected crushing rage
Shattered awed disintegrated
Fraction of volatility

Solar
Inhalation overload
Vacuum
Falling from the skies

Captive
Spectacle of innocence
A frozen frame in the final breath

The pinnacle of toxic brine
