

Healer

Montell Fish

And she's from the islands
Always keep a smile on her face
Coz she just don't know what to say, no no
Since 17
She's been living on her own
Momma passed away
And her daddy's never home, no no
He's never home
Yeah, she's got 2 jobs and 3 kids, thinks she's messed up
Local churches, yes they always wanna bless her heart
Coz girl you working so hard
And she don't know where to go
And she don't know where to go
And she don't know where to go
And she don't know where to go
She don't know where to go

Come here
I got someone I want you to meet

You are my healer
You are my healer
You are my healer
You are my healer
You are my healer
You are my healer
You are my healer

Late nights in Chicago
Birds tweeting in the morning
Lord, I just wanna follow
So much stuff is going on
It's getting hard to swallow
But You know me even better
Even when I was alone, alone
In the morning, waking up at 5am
Crying out to God, do these people hear me praying?
19 years old, now moving onto twenty
I got questions in my head, 'bout this life and 'bout this money
But I know
That You are my healer
And ain't no point of tryna worry 'bout the future
I just cast my cares upon the One that gave my life a new sense
Ever since I was a nuisance
My whole life felt like illusions
I was sitting in a doom and
Chillin' in a world of sin
Till the Father came and found me
Changed my heart right from within
Now I'm riding clean as Bounty
Made me righteous from within
Ima keep running my race
Even as I go and swim

'Cause You are my healer
'Cause You are my healer
'Cause You are my healer

'Cause You are my healer

And in the midst of my sorrows
God, You open up my eyes to let me know there's tomorrow
Another chance to keep my eyes bright-fixed on Your hallow
And Your gaze into my eyes brings my soul into follow
Brings my soul into control of the Holy Spirit
Every lyric
And every song
Getting clearer, it's getting clearer
Yes, I can hear it
And I can feel it
You can see me like I'm in a mirror

And in the midst of my sorrows
God, You open up my eyes to let me know there's tomorrow
You are my healer
And in the midst of my sorrows
God, You open up my eyes to let me know there's tomorrow
You are my healer
And in the midst of my sorrows
God, You open up my eyes to let me know there's tomorrow
You are my healer
And in the midst of my sorrows
God, You open up my eyes to let me know there's tomorrow
You are my...
