love you more than me

Montell Fish

Girl, I love you more than myself
You should know I'd give up anything for you
Girl, I love you more than myself
You should know I'd give up anything for you

You're messing around
I know the sound
I've been there before
Somehow I still adore you

And even though you cheat on me
Still I love you more than me
You're messing around, around
Still I'm around for you

Girl, I love you more than myself
You should know I'd give up anything for you
Girl, I love you more than myself
You should know I'd give up anything for you

Anything, I'd give it all
Hang on your cross, just to show my love
