

Late at night
Can't close my eyes
It gets hard
I can't decide
Oh, I don't know why
Oh, I don't know why

In the woods
Out of sight
Strike a match
Candlelight
Oh, I don't know why
Oh, I don't know why

And if I ever run away
Paint my room in black and greay
Oh, I don't know why

And in the walls of our old homes
We hid the books we read alone
Oh, I don't know why

Don't wait on
Don't wait on me

Are you feeling like you just can't stay?
Are you feeling like there's hell to pay?
Oh, are we all right?
Oh, are we all right?

Does it matter what the future holds?
When our time is bought and sold?
Oh, are we all right?
Oh, are we all right?

And if the walls all disappear
They won't know we were ever here
Oh, are we all right?

Don't wait on me
