

I'm the teacher, I'm the student, I'm the head of the class
I'm the one who always had a million questions to ask
But I was... I was too afraid to say
I was sure that there was always someone better to be Somewhere bigger, brighter, something better to see
But I was... I was too afraid to say

If you're a little bit scared, be a little bit brave
Don't ever be afraid to

Say what you gotta say
Say what you gotta say
Say what you gotta say
I want you to know I'm listening
If you're a little bit scared, be a little bit brave
Don't ever be afraid to
Say what you gotta say
Say what you gotta say

Oh oh oh oh...
Oh oh oh oh...

I'm the judge, I'm the jury with my hand on the book
I keep pleading my case but getting misunderstood
So tell me, tell me what's it gonna take
I been disconnected every time I'm looking for truth
Like a fighter, survivor, gotta stand up and prove Cause I know, I know it's the only way

If you're a little bit scared, be a little bit brave
Don't ever be afraid to

Say what you gotta say
Say what you gotta say
Say what you gotta say
I want you to know I'm listening
If you're a little bit scared, be a little bit brave
Don't ever be afraid to
Say what you gotta say
Say what you gotta say

Oh oh oh oh...
Oh oh oh oh...

Show me, show me, what you want me to see
Cause you are, you are, you are all that you need

If you're a little bit scared, be a little bit brave
Don't ever be afraid to

Say what you gotta say
Say what you gotta say
Say what you gotta say
I want you to know I'm listening
(I want you to know I'm listening)
