

6am

Moonchild

I know it by heart
But I still like to read it from the start
Offering the remedy
Sweeter than he used to be

Spend the love we saved soon
Win the waiting game soon

I hope you're listening
Though I've seen everything
Around you change
Refugin' the memories
Sweeter than the truth of me

Spend the love we saved soon
Win the waiting game soon

Hold on a little longer
That hand, go in stronger
Hold on a little longer
