

Hideaway

Moonchild

Please, baby, don't you leave, for you all of my shit can wait
We'll push it all aside and we can share a hideaway
Please, baby, don't you leave, for me all of your shit can wait
We'll push it all aside and we can share a hideaway

A hideaway, a hideaway
Oh
Ah, ah, ah, ah
(A hideaway, a hideway)

I'll say anything to make you stay
I just wanna lay the day away
You can't leave now, we've only had a taste
Of heaven here in your embrace

No matter what I've got to do
There's always time, time for you
No matter what I'm going through
There's always time, time for you
(Away, away)
No matter what I've got to do
There's always time, time for you
(Away, away)
No matter what I got to do
There's always time, time for you
(Away, away)
There's time for you, there's time for you
Hey
No matter what I got to do
No, for you
Time for you
(Away, away, away, away)
Time for you, hey
No matter what I got to do
(Away, away, away)
No matter what I got to do
