

Let You Go

Moonchild

Listen to me, cause I told you
I understand the situation
You came as a sweet surprise
Time was right on me to
Talk through every complication
You gone, baby don't stress about it
Time will do it's thing for you and me
Every man's gonna have to compete
With the 9 and the beach, know what I mean, sugar?
Still find ya lookin' me at that way, oh, and the love is

I know, I know
I know, always have a piece of you
In my heart
I know, I know
I know, always have a piece of you
In my heart

I won't be the last to tell you
What you got to give is so good
I know that I shouldn't take it
Shouldn't take it, oh
Every part of me wishes that I could
But I'm not gonna stress about it
Time gifted me a bit of the sweet
With the 9 and the beach, know what I mean, sugar?
Don't wanna spoil a good thing
So I'm gonna have to let you go

I know, I know
I know, always have a piece of you
In my heart
(Know I got a bit to go)
I know, I know
I know, always have a piece of you
In my heart
(Know I got a bit to go)
I know, I know
I know, always have a piece of you
In my heart
(Know I got a bit to go)
I know, I know
I know, always have a piece of you
In my heart
(Know I got a bit to go)
I know, I know
I know, always have a piece of you
In my heart
