

Think Back

Moonchild

Don't know why I feel this way
It's been a couple months in the makin'
But there ain't no escapin'
Doubt scratchin' at my heart
(I can't escape it)
Though I know that I don't wanna
Have to call you up and meet you
At some coffee shop (coffee shop)
Just to find out how you been
Lately I've been wonderin'

It's just a phase, it's just a phase
I pray it's just a phase

Think back, back, back, back, back, back, back
(Back, back, back)
Think back, back, back, back, back, back, back

Back when we were makin' least
Of things we never done
Livin' em, one by one
Everything's so new together
Even the weather
Coming through with all little things
I like to do (Don't remember even tellin' you)
You make me wanna be so good
That you don't leave me here
(Never gonna leave)
Even though you should

It's just a phase, it's just a phase
I pray it's just a phase

Think back, back, back, back, back, back, back
Think back, back, back, back, back, back, back

Back, back, back, back, back, back, back
Back, back, back
Back, back, back
Back, back, back
Back, back, back
It's just a phase, it's just a phase
I pray
Pray it's just, it's just a phase
