

Timeless Peace

Moonstar88

Don't say tomorrow, just say today
Time is running fast, you can never look back
So stay...

I should go to your place of love
With pure thoughts, no fears
Live in a bliss, no shame, no guilt and timeless peace

And now, you're looking on to that place of hope
Left in the dark, lost in the room
Till you walked through that door

I should go to your place of love
With pure thoughts, no fears
Live in a bliss, no shame, no guilt and timeless peace

Don't say tomorrow
Just say today, today, today...
