

Bukowski's growing old this coffee's getting cold I guess I'll never know why you closed the window Start reading Hemingway start drinking cups of Earl Grey then I guess maybe one day..
I'll be yours forever
I'm the best book you'll never read you make me feel like Jimmy Dean you make me feel like Morrissey when you undress from your best dress..

To keep warm, I'll bring a sweater you can have mine, it looks better and honestly, you can take it home.

To keep warm, I'll bring a sweater
you can have mine, it looks better
and honestly, you can take it home.
You can take it home.

We'll take blankets to stay safe I'll do my best to stay out of your way
then I guess maybe one day,
I'll be yours forever
I'll introduce you to Clarity teach you the words to The Sound Of Settling make you watch High Fidelity on a Sunday, maybe one day...

To keep warm, I'll bring a sweater
you can have mine, it looks better
and honestly, you can take it home.

To keep warm, I'll bring a sweater
you can have mine, it looks better
and honestly, you can take it home,
you can take it home.

To keep warm, I'll bring a sweater
you can have mine, it looks better
and honestly, you can take it home.
