

Evening Coffee

Moose Blood

I know they're in the next room but I'll turn the music up
'cause you're leaving in the morning and I'd really just like t o fuck

That shirt looks better on you than on me it ever could and that tattoo on your left leg looks better than it should

I'll close up all the windows and lock the bedroom door
'cause tonight you look so beautiful, more than ever you have b efore

Maybe it's cause I missed you on these past few days away is there anything that I could do that just might make you stay

So choose your favourite record and I'll choose mine we'll drink coffee till the evening just to pass the time till we know that they're asleep and I know that you're all min e
'cause your body tastes so sweet tonight.
