

Track Star

Mooski

Yeah

Man, I ain't, I ain't ever had this happen before, man (I ain't ever had this happen before)

(My heart is breaking) Heartbreak so deep

Heart broke so deep, it broke into a melody like this

My heart is breaking, my heart is—, my heart is aching

Hey, ayy, ayy

She's a runner, she's a track star

She gon' run away when it gets hard

She can't take the pain, she can't get scarred

She hurt anyone that gets involved

Don't wanna commit, why take it this far (Oh why?)

She gon' do the race, just not this one (Oh why?)

Love is a game, you used to cheer for

When I was down to talk, you weren't here for it

You-ouu-ouu-ouu-ouu (Ooh)

Leave a trail of heartbreak and heartache like its cool (Ooh)

I guess way too late is convenient for you (Ooh)

The dirt you left don't turn into dust, it don't move (Ooh)

It's here waiting for you (Ooh)

Girl, you killing me, you tweakin' hard (Girl, you tweakin')

I ask you what you feel and you don't speak at all (Oh no)

But you go straight to Twitter, you gon' tweet it all (Oh why?)

You must want another nigga to be alarmed (What you want see?)

We were 'posed to fight through the storm

You made a decision, chose the easy one

Say you following your heart, but girl you leaving one

Wanting me to take you back with open reaching arms (And I can't do that, ma ma)

I-I-I-I-I I'm

Lost for words, let it hurt

(Setting my heart on fire, setting my heart on fire)

I-I-I-I-I

Put you first, showed you your worth

(Gave you whatever you desire, gave you whatever you desire)

She's a runner, she's a track star

She gon' run away when it gets hard

She can't take the pain, she can't get scarred

She hurt anyone that gets involved

Don't wanna commit, why take it this far (Oh why?)

She gon' do the race, just not this one (Oh why?)

She run from all her problems like she in shape for it (Oh)

Hard times, wait for it and then she break for it (And then she break, yeah)

Love don't cost a thing, ashamed how much I paid for it (I'm ashamed)

Love don't cost a thing ashamed how much I gave for it

Heart broken into pieces put tape on it (Woah-woah)
Fragile made out of glass, close the drapes on it (Woah-woah)
Trust issues so deep playing safe on it (Woah-woah)
Will I ever love again or will I stay lonely?

I-I-I-I-I I'm
Lost for words, let it hurt
(Setting my heart on fire, setting my heart on fire)
I-I-I-I-I
Put you first, showed you your worth
(Gave you whatever you desire, gave you whatever you desire)

(She's a runner, runner, runner, runner, runner, runner)
She can't take it, she can't take it
Oh-oh, yeah
