

Saw an angel above the sky
Tryin' to understand why it makes me cry
The only thing I got till yesterday
Was the thought of you babe fading away

You never know how it hurt me baby

You never looked at my face
You knew loving me is such a disgrace
I knew you were the queen and I'm the clown
But baby I'm standing on my own

You never know how it hurt me baby, you never will

I don't care
