

Something's burning in my head
Restless days and nights, they never end
With every word unspoken I fade away
Though that's not your fault, it's me who has no excuse

My dream has gone and I'm undone
My dream has gone and I'm undone

Each time I see your eyes I just feel guilty
Of loving you this way, though I'm not hopeless yet
My soul is shadowed by your magic smile
I tried so hard to reach you but I failed

My dream has gone and I'm undone
My dream has gone and I'm undone
My dream has gone and I'm undone
My dream has gone
