

Bleeding Out

Morcheeba

You'll stay sane
Relaxing in the silence of the last day
The lowly set sail on darkest waves
The worst of all the lost souls come chasing

Bleeding out
So will you sink or swim now?
You're gonna need to battle
To make it home

To reach to a higher state
Of mind you're safe in, you must rise now, don't come down
Believe you are unrestrained
That I have faith in, you will rise and won't come down

Feeling that sunlight
Come alive 'cross the plane
Gotta watch for signs constantly
You will light up on the stage
With a lion's grace

To reach to a higher state
Of mind you're safe in, you must rise now, don't come down
Believe you are unrestrained
That I have faith in, you will rise and won't come down

Find out life's about without a doubt
Spend the time to liberate all your limitations now
Call out loud the inner cry
Your third eye all wide and proud
You're now so aware, self-love affair
Live again, transcend to mend
Calm down, meditate to meditate, redefine
Gonna free your mind, chakras aligned

Gonna free your mind, chakras aligned
