Reach

Mordred

Pluto's third eye's rising in Neptune's cycle
I've searched the earth a thousand lives
No ones disciple
The sun is my right eye and the moon is my left
Thunder rides across the sky to the west

We dream the vast horizon
Underneath a desert sky
We reach into another world
And our souls will never die

I stride purified over miles of fire
Hypnotize my minds eye out of body fly
To the wind and sky dancing ghosts blow vision smoke

Blind lead blind to find the silent word I spoke

We dream the vast horizon
Underneath a desert sky
We reach into another world
And our souls will never die

Night sun can dawn helps you find the way
The fabric of a dream weaved into the veil

We dream the vast horizon
Underneath a desert sky
We reach into another world
And our souls will never die
