Taking love and affection to the global stage
Oh na na na, oh na na na (weh you say)
All dem ah ask for (all dem ah ask for)
All dem ah yearn for (all dem ah yearn for)
Just think about it for a little bit
Yeah yeah

Sometimes we don't pay attention (ah true mon)
To the little things that matter (little things you know)
And it's not that complicated (yeah)
Never really takes much to make thing better (weh she want)

All she wants is a little more affection
The love is not in question
Pay a little more attention
It'll mean the world
To her and it'll ease up all the tension
That'll make her wanna leave
All you gotta do
Is pay a little more attention
Pay attention (yeah)

If you want extra
Give her double extra
Make your love and affection ah rest her
Text her, don't you ever pester
Bless her and don't you ever stress her because (yeah)
The love weh she give me ah mad me (mad me)
Yo mi woman never sad me
Even when mi tell her baby you got me
It is not enough because

All she wants is a little more affection
The love is not in question

She'd rather love you than to gain the world
Ooooooh, you know the sex gets greater
When the connection is on a higher level
This is what she'd rather

Play her some Reggae and sing her some hymn
Squeeze her close tighter she love to scream
Be her yoga partner even inna di gym
