For He's the power of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Divine Spirit

Who created all things?

He's the natural mystic; he's Majestic; He's Prophetic

He's the ever burning fire

He's life in all things

For he's the Lamb and he's the Lion; He's from Zion
With the scepter in his hand

He gets to run all things

He's the rightful ruler of the earth

And he concern, he holds the book of life

And on the destiny of all YEAH!

Even not for watching his son befall victim to the beast

And it's the same as ABSALOM did

For you joined with the U.S from the U.N so they

Likewise the League of Nations in Geneva

Did not come to his aid when Mussolini and his galleon invade

Same time me stay there for me to mourn for you

Then we'll have to stop the world watch you YEAH!
