Oh my God, I don't care 'bout what is right
I just need someone to hold tonight

I know
You got somebody new
Is it true
Regret
Weights me down like a stone
I can't move

My heart is trying to move on but my head is miles away
And my body still remembers your name
I've been caught up in the deep end
So before I fall to pieces
I need someone to help me escape

Oh my God, gotta get you out my mind
Gotta lose myself in flashing lights
Oh my God, I don't care 'bout what is right
I just need someone to hold tonight

I hope
You moved out of this place
Faraway
But I stay
Holding on to the past
It won't fade

My heart is trying to move on but my head is miles away
And my body still remembers your name
I've been caught up in the deep end
So before I fall to pieces
I need someone to help me escape

Oh my God, gotta get you out my mind
Gotta lose myself in flashing lights
Oh my God, I don't care 'bout what is right
I just need someone to hold tonight

Anyone but you
Anyone but you
I don't care 'bout who
Anyone but you

Anyone but you
Anyone but you
Nothing left to lose
Anyone but you

Your love was the hardest thing to lose
I'll do what it takes to get me through

Oh my God, gotta get you out my mind
Gotta lose myself in flashing lights
Oh my God, I don't care 'bout what is right
I just need someone to hold tonight

Anyone but you
Anyone but you
I don't care 'bout who
Anyone but you

Anyone but you
Anyone but you
Anyone but you

Oh my God
I lose myself
Oh my God
Anyone but you

Oh my God
I lose myself
Oh my God
Anyone but you
Anyone but you
