

Dancing All Alone

Morgan Page

(We just dancing all alone in the dark)

It's late and I was throwing things
And saying shit, we're kind of mean
Been telling lies we both believe
Oh, that's just you and me

By the morning
Got your body and my mind going
Back to love that's fuckin' with my emotions
Every touch you're feeling lost in the moment
All right, every time you're holding me closer
Feels like we're just falling apart
Don't know if it's love or it's over
Like a fire burning down to a spark
We just dancing all alone in the dark
Dancing all alone in the dark
We just dancing all alone in the dark

We just dancing all alone in the dark

It's 3 a.m., too many things
We're saying shit before we think
Two hearts been hanging on the brink
Oh, that's just you and me

By the morning
Got your body and my mind going
Back to love that's fuckin' with my emotions
Every touch you're feeling lost in the moment
All right, every time you're holding me closer
Feels like we're just falling apart
Don't know if it's love or it's over
Like a fire burning down to a spark
We just dancing all alone in the dark
Dancing all alone in the dark
We just dancing all alone in the dark

Dancing all alone in the dark
Dancing all alone in the dark
Dancing all alone in the dark
