

Fire & Gold

Morgan Page

You used to hold me close at night
But now you're on the other side
Staring at your vacant eyes
I know you're there somewhere inside

Feels like there's oceans pulling us two worlds away
But you're so far from me
How do we fill this space between us

Why you gotta be so cold, Be so
I just wanna feel your fire and gold
Won't you let me see that spark in your soul
I just wanna be your fire and gold

Fire and gold
Fire and gold
Fire and gold
Fire and gold
I just wanna be, wanna be your

Driving down a lost highway
Guess there's nothing left to say
This silence slowly killing me
Can you hear my heart breaking

Feels like slow motion, pushing us two worlds apart
I don't know where start, no
How do we fill this space between us

Why you gotta be so cold, Be so
I just wanna feel your fire and gold
Won't you let me see that spark in your soul
I just wanna be your fire and gold

Fire and gold
Fire and gold
Fire and gold
Fire and gold
I just wanna be, wanna be your
