

Lead The Life

Morgan Page

Sometimes in life
You might fall behind
You try to hide
But nothing really stays in line

If you keep the light on you will find that
Everything you touch will be united
Any thought you have and you can't fight it
'Cause everything you touch will be united

Do you lead the life you want
Or are you just making it easy?
Do you lead the life you want?
You gotta fight for what you believe in
Do you lead the

With pain on your mind
It feels like running out of time
But to think is to die
Let your heart out and realize

If you keep the light on you will find that
Everything you touch will be united
Any thought you have and you can't fight it
'Cause everything you touch will be united

Do you lead the life you want
Or are you just making it easy?
Do you lead the life you want?
You gotta fight for what you believe in
Do you lead the

Do you lead the life
Do you lead the life you want?
Do you lead the life you want?
