

Sweet Illusion

Morgan Page

Don't need words 'cause I'm fed up with them
No solace, no comfort, I'm finding with my friends
So terrified of the distance
Top of my lungs, no one's listening

Up on the ceiling
Nothin' has meaning
Don't bother me
Numbing the feelings
Is so appealing
Don't bother me
Till the sunrise returns
I'ma let all this burn down
Won't bother me

No honesty, I
I just need a sweet illusion
Where nothing hurts me
Emotions won't control me
If I drown out the lonely
I just need a
I just need
Addiction, I'm all in
The backbeat is calling (Calling)
I just need a
I just need
Addiction, I'm all in
The backbeat is calling (Calling)
I just need a sweet illusion

Caution signs, they only hypnotise
No flashing, no warning can shake my will to fly
Going alone on this mission
Escaping with no destination

Up on the ceiling
Nothin' has meaning
Don't bother me
Numbing the feelings
Is so appealing
Don't bother me
Till the sunrise returns
I'ma let all this burn down
Won't bother me

No honesty, I
I just need a sweet illusion
Where nothing hurts me
Emotions won't control me
If I drown out the lonely
I just need a
I just need a

Sweet illusion
Sweet illusion
Sweet illusion

Till the sunrise returns
I'ma let all this burn down
Won't bother me

Sweet illusion
Sweet illusion
Sweet illusion
Sweet illusion
Sweet illusion
Where nothing hurts me

No honesty, I
Where nothing hurts me
Emotions won't control me
If I drown out the lonely
I just need a
I just need a

No honesty, I
I just need a sweet illusion
Where nothing hurts me
Emotions won't control me
If I drown out the lonely
I just need a
I just need a

Sweet illusion
Sweet illusion
Till the sunrise returns
Sweet illusion
Sweet illusion
