

Turn Off My Mind

Morgan Page

A penny for your thoughts, a dollar for your troubles
Pour me up a shot, fuck it, make it a double
It's four in the morning wherever you are
And my head spins around you but you're still so far

'Cause I've been stuck on your line
I've been wasting my time
I wanna turn off my mind
I wanna turn off my mind
Girl, you won't ever recite
And it's killing my vibe
Tonight I'm gonna turn off my mind
Gonna turn off my mind
Turn off my mind

Turn off my mind
Turn off my mind
Turn off my mind

Just about had it with the madness
And the rat packs and the tactics and their practice
That it takes to get past this, if I get lit
Can I pass this if I run fast and I practice?

Can I let go of elastics?
Can I let go of elastics?
Small talk is cheap, gotta get me something
It's dry out here in the summertime
A drink might be nice to hold a little longer
Make it on ice

I've been stuck on your line
I've been wasting my time
I wanna turn off my mind
I wanna turn off my mind
Girl, you won't ever recite
And it's killing my vibe
Tonight I'm gonna turn off my mind
Gonna turn off my mind
Turn off my mind

Turn off my mind
Turn off my mind
Turn off my mind
Turn off my mind

Love only happens in the movies
I only wish you really knew me
You think I'm sugar and spices
You leave me to my devices
I wish you could see through me (turn off my mind)
I wish you'd wanna do me (turn off my mind)
My mind is unruly, my mind is unruly

I've been stuck on your line
I've been wasting my time

I wanna turn off my mind
