

Juliet

Morgan Wade

Juliet, don't keep me hidden
I'm aware that I'm forbidden
But I'd walk through a fire for you
If it buys me an hour or two

Juliet, your lips taste like wine
You're laying in his bed, but you're thinking of mine
Romeo ain't what you need
I think you should run away with me

I'm a sinner, I'm a runner
They said I can't be your lover
But I don't understand
Something's just been missing, but I don't feel conflicted
When I'm holding your hand
Tell me what to do
Is it wrong if I love you?

It's getting late, Juliet
Have you picked your poison yet?
I understand if it's not me
Don't let the world tell you who you oughta be

I'm a sinner, I'm a runner
They said I can't be your lover
But I don't understand
Something's just been missing, but I don't feel conflicted
When I'm holding your hand
Tell me what to do
Is it wrong if I love you?

I'm a sinner, I'm a runner
They said I can't be your lover
But I don't understand
Something's just been missing, but I don't feel conflicted
When I'm holding your hand

I'm a sinner, I'm a runner
They said I can't be your lover
But I don't understand
Something's just been missing, but I don't feel conflicted
When I'm holding your hand
Tell me what to do
Is it wrong if I love you?

Is it wrong if I love you?
