

Spin

Morgan Wade

Started trying, but I started too late
I'm finally crying
You've done walked away
The grass ain't greener over here, it's all dead
The people ain't prettier, they're all messed up in the head

But when I come down
Won't you pick me off the ground?
Spin me around once more
Spin me around once more

You were always a crazy little Pisces
Back then, you couldn't keep your damn eyes off me
But we ended way too soon
I coulda had another lifetime with you

But when I come down
Won't you pick me off the ground?
Spin me around once more
Spin me around once more

Now you're happy, and I can't even rest
With my angry heart, barely beating in my chest
But I'm the one to blame
I took too long to change

But when I come down
Won't you pick me off the ground?
Spin me around once more
Spin me around once more
