

Stand Alone

Morgan Wallen

I've made my share
Of empty promises
Not like you care
Anymore
I wish you did
But I've done all I can do
Baby I ain't gonna chase you out that door
If you don't know by now
That you're the one I love
Clearly we were never meant to be
If you'll take the words
Out of someone else's mouth before you take mine
Well I got nothing left to say

Oh, I stand alone
It won't be the first time or the last time
That I'm gonna make it on my own
Oh, I stand alone
Don't be sorry, don't call me
'Cause I won't pick up the phone
I'm standing alone

Just the other day
Driving down the highway
Seen a Chevrolet, reminded me of you
I almost called
But I'm sure glad I didn't
I just shook it off and drank some mountain dew
You always said
That it was bad for my health
Well baby you can go to hell

While I stand alone
It won't be the first time or the last time
That I'm gonna make it on my own
Oh, I stand alone
Don't be sorry, don't call me
'Cause I won't pick up the phone
I'm standing alone

The waves will crash
And the winds will blow
But I'll be here standing on
My tip toes

Oh, I stand alone
It won't be the first time or the last time
That I'm gonna make it on my own
Oh, I stand alone
Don't be sorry, don't call me
'Cause I won't pick up the phone
I'm standing alone
I'm standing alone
I'm standing alone
Standing alone
