

Last Days

Mori Calliope

Castle made of thorns, rumor rose and crimson
Wrapped for something more, all I got is distance
Driving roadless feels like the end of a life
Running through those nights
All these other curses stuck in the light
Floating on the surface, still in shallow
Probably left to rot, I'm sinking
It's a close turning

Giving up, giving up, giving in
Could I still live again, live again, live again?
But what's the point in fighting when nothing lasts at all?

On your last day
Standing here alone with you
I felt my vision was (Way up, way up, yeah)
Now I can't (Wake up, wake up, yeah)
Don't tell me it's over, it must be...
Is it gonna be just me left behind?
Me and my life, forever wasting time

Back then there was nothing left to lose
Back then every night was wine and blues
That's when every pen I tried to use
Ended up leaking my weakness and bled through
I'll end but still a little mistaken
Faking like neither is taking
Waking up, every night pacing
Was it all or wasting, am I worth the place? And Locked down deep in my soul is what I really wanna shout
Now, out of control, but I still hold it inside
And now there's nowhere to hide, you wanna know if I'm fine
Well, it's nobody fault, so close to

Giving up, giving up, giving in
Could I still live again, live again, live again?
But what's the point in fighting when nothing lasts at all?

On your last day
Standing here alone with you
I felt my vision was (Way up, way up, yeah)
Now I can't (Wake up, wake up, yeah)
Don't tell me it's over, it must be...
Is it gonna be just me left behind?
Me and my life, forever...

Every now and then reality creeps in Every now and then...
A glance over the deep end
You live on still, so when I'm not around
Remember me, remember what we found

On our last day
Standing here alone 'cause nothing lasts forever
Wake up, wake up, yeah
No, I can't wake up, wake up, yeah
No... It's not over, it can't be

Is it gonna be just me left behind
Is this goodbye?

On my last day
Doesn't matter where or when
I swear I'll find us (Way up, way up, yeah)
Somewhere things (Way up, way up, yeah)
'Cause I know some dreams just can't come true
But I wanna see you again sometime
That song in my heart, it kept me alive
