

Chasing Ghosts

MorMor

I watched you race towards the sun
Farther from reason, no reason to run
Chasing the end of your luck
You said to me time has taken your trust

You're chasing ghost
And you keep running
You say you know
That the world's
Not enough
You take all the love
All the love that's given
You say you know
That the world's
Not enough

Don't know what to call it
The stars are fading slowly
Now you're burning out before me
You'll dance until the rhythm stops
Lose your inhibitions
Forget about tomorrow
Gotta take it while you have it
Run until the feelings stop

You're chasing ghost
And you keep running
You say you know
That the world's
Not enough
You take all the love
All the love that's given
You say you know
That the world's
Not enough

Don't know what to call it
The stars are fading slowly
Now you're burning out before me
You'll dance until the rhythm stops
Lose your inhibitions
Forget about tomorrow
Gotta take it while you have it
Run until the feelings stop
