Crawl

MorMor

When I was young
It was all but a dream
When I was young
It was all but a dream

My eyes had lost the light for you
But still you came
Was I ever enough for you
Inside your gaze

I'd call into the night for you

Crawl to the edge for you
Crawl to the end to feel your love
Where I can find you
Crawl to the edge for you
Crawl to the end to feel your love
Where I can find you
Where I can find

When I was young
It was all but a dream
When I was young
It was all it could be

My heart couldn't give enough to you
But still you came

I'd call into the night for you

Crawl to the edge for you
Crawl to the end to feel your love
Where I can find you
Crawl to the edge for you
Crawl to the end to feel your love
Where I can find you
Crawl to the edge for you
Crawl to the end to feel your love
Where I can find you
Where I can find
