

Get Away

MorMor

Why is your love trying to get away?
Caught in the ruins, hoping that you might stay

I'd lose someone for you
For you and your heart
If only I could take the pain for you
And waste away

Ooh
Don't look to get away, to get away
Ooh
Don't look to get away

Leave what you know, there is no time to waste
Beneath it all, see what you'd face must you stay

I sense what waits on you
On you and your heart
If only I could take the pain with you
And waste away

Ooh
Don't look to get away, to get away
Ooh
Don't look to get away, to get away
Ooh
Don't look to get away, to get away
Ooh, ooh-ooh
Don't look to get away
