

Here It Goes Again

MorMor

Happiness is like a wave and now it falls aside
You had seen what shadows came to keep me up at night
We were both known to keep a dream alive
As we waited in a false paradise

What came to be
I keep thinking
It's hard to breathe
You came to me
Chasing highs
That soon would leave
And I say

Ooo, here it goes again
I can see the times are changing
And I'm missing what was then
Ooo, here it goes again
I can see the times are changing
And I'm missing what was then

I had failed to see
The flame had died
You had stayed close to me
When love is blind

What came to be
I keep thinking
It's hard to breathe
You came to me
Chasing highs
That soon would leave
And I say

Ooo, here it goes again
I can see the times are changing
And I'm missing what was then
Ooo, here it goes again
I can see the times are changing
And I'm missing what was then

Ooo, here it goes again
I can see the times are changing
And I'm missing what was then
Ooo, here it goes again
I can see the times are changing
And I'm missing what was then
