

Lifeless

MorMor

And you try to take me
Outside my head
Some days, I don't mind
Some days not today
While nothing flies
In paradise
This fractured light
Burns bright

Caught outside the gates
I could be a million miles away
Slowly look inside
You know you won't find me this time

Too hard to trust
Which way to go
What life is really like
Life is really like
No way to trust
Which way to go
What life is really like
When life feels lifeless

And you try to tell me
What lies ahead
Knowing that in time
I'll soon slip away

Slowly look inside
You know you won't find me this time
See this sorrow I'm bound to See there's wonder I won't find

Ooo
Birds will sing
I know broken wings
Will not fly home
Ooo
Birds will sing
I know broken wings
Will not fly home

Too hard to trust
Which way to go
What life is really like
What life is really like
No way to trust
Which way to go
What life is really like
When life feels lifeless
When life feels still
