

Seasons Change

MorMor

Please just hurry up
Shouldn't waste time
Have we lost enough
Waiting for a clear sign
A moment
A chance to trust

The pleasures
We'll find

I told you once
I know better than to waste time

Oh
As the river
Flows on constantly
Time will never wait
As seasons change
I won't leave it to fate
As seasons change

I've seen it all before
And stepped in twice
Rivers cold enough
As you hold tight
No reason
To trust
With pleasure
In mind
You told me once
You know better than to waste time

Oh
As the river
Flows on constantly
Time will never wait
As seasons change
I won't leave it to fate
As seasons change

Oh
Oh
As the river
Flows on constantly
Time will never wait
As seasons change
I won't leave it to fate
As seasons change

Oh
As the river
Flows on constantly
Time will never wait
As seasons change
I won't leave it to fate
As seasons change
Oh

Oh

I can see they've all got eyes
For you
