

london traffic

Giorgio Moroder

London traffic, help me
London traffic, save me
Help me get to Marble Arch
You know my baby's waiting
I promised her I'd be on time

London traffic, come on
London traffic, move on
Try to get me out of this jam
She won't wait forever
Pretty soon she may be gone

Ooh bali coo
Doola, doola, doola, bali coo
Ooh bali coo
Doola, doola, doola, bali coo
Ooh bali coo
Doola, doola, doola, bali coo
Ooh bali coo
London town, don't let me down

It's my imagination
But I can see my baby walking off with someone new
If I don't get there quickly, there may be nothing I can do
It only happened Sunday, we made a date for Monday
Five o'clock at Marble Arch
So, London traffic, help me
London traffic, if you can

London traffic, help me
London traffic, save me
Help me get to Marble Arch
You know my baby's waiting
I promised her I'd be on time

London traffic, come on
London traffic, move on
Try to get me out of this jam
She won't wait forever
Pretty soon, she may be gone

London traffic, London traffic
London traffic, London traffic
You know my baby's waiting
I promised her I'd be on time

London traffic, London traffic
London traffic
She won't wait forever
Pretty soon she may be gone

London traffic, London traffic
London traffic
