

Underdog

Giorgio Moroder

Been in this place for just a short time
Up from the country to have a good time - in the city.
Every job he takes he's used and abused
By boss-men want him to lick their shoes - in the city.

You're an underdog

An' that's the way
That's tha way you're gonna stay.

Every girl he's met's him so upset
Treating him bad with no sign of regret - they don't care
So he went to a brothel to pay for love
The whores looked at him started to laugh - so unfair.

You're an underdog

An' that's the way
That's tha way you're gonna stay.

You're an underdog

An' that's the way
That's the way you're gonna stay.

Kick him to the floor
Then you shut the door - underdog.

I must confess as it's for the best
I'm the underdog that was in this mess - before
But now I see where I've been going wrong
An' so I've changed into someone strong
For sure.

What a joke
I was dreaming 'till I woke an' saw
