

Watch Your Step

Giorgio Moroder

Running in the doorway to beat the cops
Safety is the answer to save your lot
Don't you try no fun is all you'll be running
The man's dressed in blue, with the devil's grin

Hey, watch your step
Hey, watch your step
Hey, watch your step
Hey, watch your step

Parking on the meter's no guarantee
The cop is the God with the powers to be
Just you cut your hair and you take my advice
When he passes by then you try to be so nice

Watch your step
Hey, watch your step

A ticket in his hand and an automatic mind
Waiting for a chance to arrest your kind
Nothing you can do will make him change his way
You just keep on smiling and then always say

Watch your step
Say, watch your step
Say, watch your step
Say, watch your step (You better believe me)
Say, watch your step (Ooh, will you hear me?)
Say, watch your step (A-watch your step)
Say, watch your step (Watch your step)
Say, watch your step (Oh no, no, no, you better believe me)
Say, watch your step (And watch, and watch, and watch your step
)
Say, watch your step (Ooh, you better believe me)
Say, watch your step
