

What A Night

Giorgio Moroder

Ow, what a night
Ow, what a lonely, lonely night
What a night
Ow, what a lonely, lonely night

I talked to Mary
To reach a woman who's sane
She said, "I'm sorry"
She had a pain in her brain
So I refuted
She couldn't make it tonight, tonight
No, no, no, no, no, no girl tonight
No girl tonight

Ow, what a night
Ow, what a lonely, lonely night
What a night
Ow, what a lonely, lonely night

Ow, what a night
Ow, what a lonely, lonely night
What a night
Ow, what a lonely, lonely night

I started calling
Bright and early in the morning
To find a lady
To spend the night with me
I rang the number
All the numbers I knew so well
But no, no, no, no, no, no girl tonight
No girl tonight

Ow, what a night
Ow, what a lonely, lonely night
What a night
Ow, what a lonely, lonely night

What a night, such a night
Such a lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely night
Ooh-hoo, ooh-hoo, ooh-hoo
Ooh-hoo, ooh-hoo, ooh-hoo

Got the blues, got the blues for tonight
By myself, by myself, it ain't right
Got the blues, got the blues for tonight
By myself, by myself, it ain't right

Ow, what a night
Ow, what a lonely, lonely night
What a night
Ow, what a lonely, lonely night
