

I'm Free Now

Morphine

I'm free now to direct a movie sing a song, or write a book about yours truly how I'm so interesting, I'm so great I'm really just a fuckup and it's such a waste to burn down these walls around me flexing like a heartbeat we don't like to speak don't talk to me for about a week I'm sorry, it just hurts to explain there's something going on that makes my guts ache

I got guilt, I got fear, I got regret
I'm just a panic-stricken waste I'm such a jerk I was honest, I swear the last thing I want to do honest, I swear
the last thing I want to do is ever cause you pain

I'm free now
free to look out the window free to live my story free to sing along

I'm free now to direct a movie
sing a song, or write a book about yours truly
how I'm so interesting, I'm so great but I'm really just a fuckup, it's such a waste to burn down these walls around me
flexing like a heartbeat
we don't like to speak
don't talk to me for about a week
I'm sorry, it just hurts to explain there's something going on that makes my guts ache inside

I got guilt, I got fear, I got regret
I'm just a panic-stricken waste I'm such a jerk
I was honest, I swear
the last thing I want to do
honest, I swear
the last thing I want to do
is ever cause you pain
